- Club fees are the cheapest of any club in the Province at $60 for Midget, Juvenile, Junior and Senior athletes and $30 for Bantam and Pee Wee athletes. Membership should be renewed between September and November of each year and covers the entire year until August. If you are becoming a member after December, the fees are doubled.
- All Flying 'M' members must be members of Athletics Manitoba. Athletics Manitoba membership fees are as follows: All age categories are $50

Benefits of membership:

1. Low club membership fees
2. Yearly funding opportunities for athletes who participate in all fundraising events
3. Funding to National Outdoor Championships (amount of funding changes on yearly basis)
4. Great coaching
5. Membership in an athlete driven club that is run for the athletes

Member Requirements:

- All members are required provide a volunteer to work Bingos. All volunteers must be 18 years of age or over for bingos.
- All members are required to act as volunteers at specific meets throughout the year.
- All members are required to work the Flying 'M' Frolic Track and Field meet in December of each year.
- All members are required to work the Islendingadagurinn Road Race in August of each year.

Please note: Flying 'M' Athletic Club does not pay entry fees for meets. It is the athlete's responsibility to pay for their entry fees by paying their coach when registering for a meet.

Cheques should be made out to Flying 'M' Athletic Club. Please call either Jill Seymour (204) 489-7361 or George Tanner (204) 388-4729 for information on where to send your payment.
