

Hiring an Events Coordinator!

MRA is growing! We are looking for an Events Coordinator to join our team. If you are a dynamic, detail-oriented person who can build great relationships with the running community, please give us a call. If you are otherwise occupied but know of someone who would be perfect for the role, please send us their name.

The Events Coordinator supports the MRA by organizing excellent events and assisting the Executive Director. Annual salary is $25,160, based on an average expected work week of 24 hours (hours vary seasonally; some evening and weekend work is required). Work from home with flexible hours and a stipend for expenses. It's a perfect position for someone who loves community, people, and running.
